About the Organizations

The Center For Autism was founded in 1955 by renowned child psychiatrist Bertram A. Ruttenberg, MD, and is the oldest specialized autism center in the nation. Operating as a nonprofit clinic, the Center offers comprehensive evaluation, intensive treatment and support to individuals with autism and their families.

Since its inception, the Center has served as an industry model and helped thousands of children and families. In a warm, caring environment, the Center provides services that are tailored to meet each individual's specific needs. As the organization moves forward with providing services to a larger population, it remains focused on creating better outcomes for life for those affected by autism.

The Hollister Foundation was created in 2009 as a philanthropic vehicle to mobilize, energize and inspire professionals in the real estate and construction industries to support and fund children's education and health programs. As the future leaders of our society, children must be provided every possible opportunity for development and growth. The mission of The Hollister Foundation is to raise and distribute funds that promote awareness for organizations and initiatives that foster children's advancement through education and health. The Hollister Foundation: equipping children with the tools they need for a healthy and successful life.
